

(#23 – WHEN LIFE GIVES YOU LEMONS begins.)

WHEN LIFE GIVES YOU LEMONS

DADDY: It's a saying, Junie B. When life gets a little sour, you need to learn to sweeten it up a bit.
JUNIE B: Yeah, right.

DADDY:

When the road of life hits some boulders and bumps.

Dear, the strain and strife can leave you down in the dumps. But I got some advice that in my noggin has stayed. When life gives you lemons, just

MOTHER:

make lemonade!— Think your time is through and you won't be a star?— Never take for granted just how special you are.— Stardom is -n't over, just a lit-tle de-layed, — When life gives you le-mons, just

DADDY:

make le-mon-ade. —

See these le-mons in - side my hand? Old and so-ur, and no fun at — all.

JUNIE B: So?

MOTHER:

Look at so-ur le-mons in a diff'-rent way and

sud-den-ly you'll have a — ball! —
